Halfmile's Pacific Crest Trail Notes - Campo to Tuolumne Meadows

Mile NB	Mile SB	Description	Waypoint	Elev	Map
13.8	2638.8	New for 2020: NFS Closure Order # 02-20-02 requires a PCT Long-Distance permit to disperse camp along the PCT from 3/1/20 - 5/31/20 in the Descanso Ranger District within the Cleveland National Forest (about PCT miles 13.8 - 52.6). If you do not have an interagency PCT Long-Distance permit, "Camping outside of a developed campground within one-half mile of the PCT" could result in up to a $5,000 fine and/or 6 month imprisonment. Developed campgrounds are at mile 20 (Lake Morena), mile 26 (Boulder Oaks), mile 32.6 (Cibbets Flat), mile 41.5 (Burnt Rancheria), and mile 47.5 (Mt Laguna CG). For more info: http://bit.ly/pctdescanso ----- The Descanso Ranger District within the Cleveland National Forest appears to begin just north of the large high voltage powerline (AKA Sunrise Powerlink) that runs along the south side of Hauser Canyon. Dispersed camping in Cleveland NF (when/where allowed) requires a permit. Note that in the Laguna Mountain Recreation Area (about miles 41 - 52.6) dispersed camping is not allowed, even more than one-half mile from the PCT.

168.6	2484.0	Spitler Trail Junction --- Many thru-hikers reach the San Jacinto Mountains early in the hiking season when snow and ice still cover parts of the trail. In 2005 a PCT hiker died in the San Jacinto's following a snowstorm. Snow often begins on the north side of Apache Peak and continues 21 miles through Fuller Ridge. If you reach Apache Peak and are uneasy traveling north you can backtrack 1 mile to the Spitler Peak Trail and hike the Spitler to Idyllwild Alternate [see Halfmile's maps]. Halfmile's Pacific Crest Trail Notes - Campo to Tuolumne Meadows

702.2	1950.4	Kennedy Meadows is a small hiker-friendly community 1/2 mile E of the PCT. Kennedy Meadows has a restaurant and a small General Store [559-850-5647] with a grill, laundry, showers, pay phone, and they allow hikers to camp out back. The store accepts hiker resupply packages [$]. Hikers will need to carry a bear canister 315 miles from here to Sonora Pass. ----- Grumpy Bears Retreat & Triple Crown Outfitter are about 2 miles SE of the General Store. Grumpy Bears [grumpybearsretreat.com, 559-850-2327] is a restaurant & bar serving food, beer & wine that also offers hikers hot showers, laundry, dry camping and accepts hiker resupply boxes. Triple Crown Outfitter [559-850-4453; triplecrownoutfitters.com] has good hiker reviews and appears to offer decent resupply, run from Yogi's home located across the street from Grumpy Bear's. Per Yogi [and several hiker reviews]: "No need to ship resupply packages to Kennedy Meadows anymore, because hikers can resupply at TCO. Full outfitter, full hiker resupply: bear canisters, ice axes, spikes, clothing, shoes, huge food selection, etc." ----- Historically the Kennedy Meadows area sometimes has a weird competitive vibe between KM store and Grumpy Bear's. ----- For the Kennedy Meadows General Store send resupply packages by USPS or UPS Include ETA on your package. (Your Name) c/o Kennedy Meadows General Store 96740 Beach Meadow Road Inyokern, CA 93527 ----- Grumpy Bear's Retreat accepts hiker packages, any mailing method, no holding fee. Include ETA on your package. In addition to the address, it's a good idea to write in great big letters DELIVER TO GRUMPY BEARS. Mail sometimes gets mis-delivered in Kennedy Meadows. (Your Name) c/o Grumpy Bear's Retreat 98887 Kennedy Meadows Road Inyokern, CA 93527 ----- [Resupply Rating: Always sent a box here in the past, but tempting to avoid shipping a box and give Triple Crown Outfitters a try. Note: The Sierra has some of the longest sections between resupply. Also, many hikers are slowed by elevation and snow, so walk fewer miles per day. -HM]	KMStore	6,149	G6
